

XVII SITRAER

São Paulo, October 22-24th, 2018 - <https://pcs.usp.br/sitraer2018/>

SITRAER– Air Transportation Symposium – is an annual event organized by the Brazilian Air Transportation Research Society (SBTA). In 2018, the XVII SITRAER will be held in the city of São Paulo, from October 22nd to 24th, with focusing on the necessary interchange among the academia, the entrepreneurial world, the service providers, and the regulation authorities.

Important Dates

• Abstract Submission:

May 31st, 2018

• Notification of acceptance:

June 15th, 2018

• Full paper submission:

July 31st, 2018

• Author notification:

August 15th, 2018

• Camera-Ready submission:

August 31st, 2018

General Chair

João Batista Camargo Júnior
(joaocamargo@usp.br)

Website

We invite the authors to submit papers that report researches related to Air Transportation, including the ones dedicated to models, to technological solutions, qualitative or quantitative analyses, bibliographical/literature reviews, and other approaches with scientific reasoning. Some of the topics of interest (not listed exhaustively) can be seen below:

Air Transportation Geopolitics

- Demand and Supply
- Intermodality
- Relation with the Environment
- Airway Planning
- Urban Relationship of Airports

Air Traffic Management

- Aeronautical Information Management
- Traffic Flow Management
- Systems Safety and Reliability
- Systems Technology
- Human Resources

Airport Infrastructure

- Planning and Investment
- Construction
- Management and Operation
- Performance
- Technology
- Privatization

Airlines Regulation and Management

- Public Policy, Regulation and Control
- Performance
- "Low-cost" Airlines
- Human Resources
- Competition

